Beloved Mom and Dad, and my dear friends, Angela, Justine, Luke, Martin,
David, Stefano, and Luciano. Thanks for teaching me how to breathe.

FOREWORD

Emerging From The Shadows has been a journey unlike any other that I've embarked upon. From the darkest of times to the light, it has managed to purge and purify all that was necessary, as I hope it does for you. This record took over three years to complete, involving many hard drive/file failures, discouragements and various other obstacles.

Over time, the record became an experience and I learned to endure, to dream and to see them come true. I strongly urge that you experience this record on your own, within the walls of your headphone, as you never know what, or whom you may find along the way. Enjoy!
